REMEMBER ME

When you remember me, remember my happy smile.

When you think of me, think of my happy days.

When you cry for me, cry not because I left you, but because I'll be with you forever.

My domain is your memory, my happiness your soul.

I am a citizen of the wind and a member of heaven.

When you laugh, think of me, not because I left you,
but because I'll be with you forever.

-MMG

MISS YOU

Miss you, miss you, miss you;
 Everything I do
 Echoes with the laughter
 And the voice of You.
 You're on every turn and twist
 Every old familiar spot
 Whispers how you're missed.
 Miss you, miss you, miss you!
 Everywhere I go
 There are poignant memories
 Dancing in a row
 Silhouette and reality
 Everywhere displace.
 Oh, I miss you, miss you
 God! I miss you, Girl!
 There's a strange, sad silence
 'Mid the busy whirl,
 Just as tho' the ordinary
 Daily things I do
 Wait with me, expectant
 For a word from You.
 Miss you, miss you, miss you!
 Nothing now seems true
 Only that t'was heaven
 Just to be with You.

-David Cory

Well boys (RH,TS,KK,PE) this is it! For the last 4 yrs we have been like wild animals caught in a trap labeled HHS. On graduation day the jaws of this trap will loosen up enough so we can break free. Sorry Phil your caught in the trap for another yr. Memories: NSCPT, donuts in the pit with the Nova, stogies in park, motorcycling (Kostecki), lunch in our office, jumpin into the jeep, cruisin in the cutt, NHCT?, dirtbiking (PJ). Pat you need NH & a Hog. Ryan you need a fire to put out. Ted you will always forfill your need for speed. Kostecki I always knew 1 of us would be going into the military, we were all interested at 1 point. You know my plans of FL & my diving career & I hope to invite you guys down. I hope we grow up, not apart.

Well here it is, senior year. Time to look back to the things we have done and friends we have made. Also, a time to look towards the future and wherever life may take us. It's been a great four years with a few bumps along the way, and hopefully it will continue to be great after we have left. To all my friends it has been great and I hope it continues that way for all of us. RD- you rule! CT-fire alarm and off-roading in my car, oops. Four years later at Harwich High and not much has changed. Glad to see it over. Will try to stay in touch with my best of friends PE, NB, KK, TS. I would like to thank mom + dad and most of the staff at the school, especially Mr. Cat who I spent a lot of time with. I would like to know how much money I spent at Dunkin' Donuts on coffee in the last 4 years. I will always remember the times in the CJ and the camping trip at Nickerson's. Looking forward to good times, and hopefully riding Harley's.

Yup.. well it's over. I'm off to army. Had some good times hangin' in the shop with NB, PE, RH, TS. Mr Cat thanx for putting up with us. Yeah, well the vach runs with TS was fun, and riding the motorcycles with NB, throwing shot puts at people with PE, having fire extinguisher fights with RH. The Les Mobile will never die, however I should fix that gas hesitation. Hope to keep in touch with all of ya, but as the great Wanderlich says, "I don't guarantee" Hey, maybe all of us will come back to this little town on our Harley's. As for me I'm off to fix helicopters, NB hope to see ya in FL and PE, RH, TS, I'll catch ya later. Hey CT I didn't forget about you.. we had some good times, maybe I'll see ya in AZ.

Four years that will stand forever still in time. Crystal memories distinct against the background of blurred images. I care for you all because we've laughed and cried, had fun and been bored, experienced the lofty joy of success and the piercing pain of loss... together. High school has been one more hard practice before the game of life begins. Big Four...you're the funniest, coolest people, don't ever change. Family...your unconditional love and support has made me strong, thank you. Floyd...you are the neatest brother, quiet confidence kid. M.D. Thank goodness someone has a sense of humor! 1. At the tender age of 16, blues guitarist and singer Jonny Lang took his debut song, Lie to Me, to number two on the blues chart. 2. Producer, remixer, and rap artist Sean "Puffy" Combs' album No Way Out sold 561,000 copies in the first week after its release. Six consecutive songs that were either produced or sung by Combs remained at the top of Billboard's rap singles chart for 42 weeks. 3. At the 40th Grammy awards, Shawn Colvin walked away with Record of the Year and Song of the Year for Sunny Came Home. 4. Erykah Badu won a Grammy for Female Rhythm and Blues Vocal performance with her song On and On. Her album Baduizm won a Grammy for Rhythm and Blues Album. 5. The Florida-based group Matchbox 20's debut album, Yourself or Someone Like You, sold more than four million copies.

6. Jamiroquai, known for its unique sound and lead singer Jay Kay's Suess-inspired hats, won a Grammy for its song Virtual Insanity. 7. Fiona Apple's debut album Tidal brought the 20-year old artist great success and a Grammy. 8. Garth Brooks gave a free concert in New York City's Central Park and drew hundreds of thousands of fans. His album Sevens sold 3.4 million copies between Thanksgiving and New Years. 9. Fleetwood Mac released its first new album, The Dance, in a decade. The album debuted at the top of the charts and the band grossed more than $36 million on tour. The group was also inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame along with the Eagles, the Mamas and the Papas, Santana, Lloyd Price, Gene Vincent, Allen Toussaint, and Jelly Roll Morton. 10. From America's heartland came Hanson, three brothers from Tulsa, Oklahoma. With Isaac, 16, on guitar, Taylor, 13, on keyboards and Zachary, 11, on drums, the group received an enthusiastic reception from teens. Their first album, Middle of Nowhere, hit the top 10, and the single MMMBop went to number one in the U.S. and Europe. 11. LeAnn Rimes' Blue was the best-selling debut album ever by a female country artist. While the double-platinum You Light Up My Life topped the pop and country charts, the 15-year old was busy writing an autobiographical novel, starring in a TV movie, and doing ads for Samsung and KFC. 12. The British quintet, The Spice Girls, took the world by storm with their hit single Wannabe!, their book Girl Power, and the movie Spiceworld. 13. Jakob Dylan and the Wallflowers had huge hits with the album Bringing Down the Horse and the single One Headlight. • Jakob's father, Bob Dylan, survived a serious heart ailment to release Time Out of Mind. The album was widely praised by critics and received a Grammy for Album of the Year. • Elton John sang goodbye to Princess Diana at her funeral with his tribute Candle in the Wind 1997. The recording became the fastest selling single in history. The singer said that he would never perform the song again, unless it was at the request of Diana's sons. • Michael Jackson's son, Prince Michael Jackson, Jr. was born and has already earned $2 million for appearing on the cover of a British tabloid. • Canadian music legend Joni Mitchell was reunited with the daughter she gave up for adoption in 1965. After a lengthy search, private investigators helped the pair find one another. • Canadian Sarah McLachlan had a hit single, Building a Mystery, but her biggest accomplishment was putting together the Lilith Fair Tour. Lilith Fair was an all female rock tour that included artists Sheryl Crow, the Cardigans, Fiona Apple, Jewel, Tracy Chapman, Shawn Colvin, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Indigo Girls, Suzanne Vega, Paula Cole, Lisa Loeb, and Joan Osborne. The tour was so popular it upstaged even the hippest of tours like Lollapalooza and H.O.R.D.E. • Bill Berry, drummer for REM, retired after 17 years with the band. Berry suffered a brain aneurysm while on tour in 1995. • Rap artist and actor Will Smith took home his third Grammy for Men in Black. • While on tour in Sydney, Australia, U2 loaned its cargo plane to the people of Auckland, New Zealand. The city had been without power for almost two weeks and needed generators. The use of U2's plane allowed needed generators to be flown in to restore power to millions of people. • The Verve's album Urban Hymns jumped 34 spots on the charts after the song Bitter Sweet Symphony was used in a 60-second Nike ad. The band donated its profits to the British Red Cross Land Mine Appeal and the N.C.H. Action for Children "House our Youth 2000" campaign. • While the movie Titanic dominated the box office, its soundtrack dominated the music charts as well. • Celine Dion performed on the Titanic soundtrack and had a hit of her own with Let's Talk About Love. • Madonna's album Ray of Light was "immersed in spirituality and self-discovery." • Other popular musicians included Paula Cole, Duncan Sheik, Verve Pipe, Shania Twain, Beck, Oasis, Sugar Ray, Trisha Yearwood, Mighty Mighty Bosstones, OMC, Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Chumbawamba, Everclear, Ben Folds Five, Sublime, Lila McCann, Ty Herndon, Bryan White, Jars of Clay, George Strait, Save Ferris, Abra Moore, and Radiohead. • The music industry lost INXS singer Michael Hutchence, rap artist Notorious B.I.G. (Christopher Wallace), singer, songwriter, and environmentalist John Denver, and Beach Boy Carl Wilson.

1. After a long standoff with Amaru guerrillas, Peru's President Alberto Fujimori gave the order to Peruvian forces to storm the embassy residence where 72 hostages were being held. All of the guerrillas were killed and 71 of the hostages were rescued. 2. Louise Woodward, a 19-year old British au pair, was convicted of murdering an eight month old baby in her care. However, citing an absence of malice, the judge reduced the second-degree murder conviction to manslaughter and her sentence to time served. 3. Former president George Bush took up skydiving at the age of 72. He had jumped from a disabled plane in World War II and had vowed that one day he would do it again for fun. 4. Etienne Bacrot, 14, started playing chess when he was four. He became the world's youngest chess grandmaster ever, beating Canadian grandmaster Kevin Spraggett, 42. 5. Mother Teresa died at the age of 87, leaving behind a legacy of love and compassion for the poor. She also left behind more than 4,000 nuns pledged to continue the order she founded. 6. In April, heavy spring snows raised the Red River in Grand Forks, North Dakota flooding the town, causing 50,000 residents to evacuate and destroying homes and cars in its path. 7. Special Prosecutor Kenneth Starr began investigating the Clintons for their involvement in the Whitewater land development company in Arkansas. Later, Starr became the key prosecutor in President Clinton's alleged relationship with a former White House intern. Starr was investigating whether the President had coerced Monica Lewinsky into lying about the nature of their relationship. Even as accusations rocked the White House, the president's approval ratings were his highest ever. 8. The Heaven's Gate Cult committed suicide with the belief that their souls would be picked up by a spaceship hidden in the tail of the Hale-Bopp comet. Cult leader Marshall Applewhite was among the 39 dead. 9. The men's religious group, Promise Keepers, brought hundreds of thousands of men together in Washington D.C. to pledge their devotion to Jesus, family and one another. 10. At Ohio State University, Secretary of State Madeleine Albright tried to make a case for U.S. military action against Iraq. During the meeting, Albright was continually interrupted by protests from the audience. 11. 1. Italian fashion designer Gianni Versace was gunned down in front of his Miami home by alleged serial killer Andrew Cunanan. Cunanan later took his own life as police closed in after an extensive manhunt. 2. Time magazine selected Andrew Grove, chairman and CEO of Intel, as its 1997 Man of the Year. He was the person most responsible for the astounding "growth in the power and innovative potential of microchips." 3. In an effort to save Apple, cofounder Steve Jobs struck a deal with its number one competitor, Microsoft. The agreement gave Jobs some time to rescue the company, while the Microsoft Chairman, Bill Gates, became part owner of Apple after buying $150 million in stock. 4. Tamagotchi gave kids a taste of responsibility. Much like the real thing, these virtual reality pets needed everything from attention, to food, to sleep. Without this care, the pets would misbehave, get fat, or even expire. 5. Hot Wheels released its "miniature" version of the Sojourner Mars Rover, complete with Pathfinder spacecraft and lander. Kids and toy collectors sent sales soaring. 6. With increased reading awareness on television due in large part to Oprah Winfrey's book club, and the rise of espresso-serving bookstores, Americans experienced a kind of reading renaissance. 7. People magazine released its first issue of Teen People, with Party of Five's Jennifer Love Hewitt on the cover. The first issue included articles about what's hot in fashion, a behind the scenes look at the music group Hanson, and photo flashbacks of Brad Pitt. 8. Beanie babies sent children and parents running to the toy store. These cuddly little creatures were must-haves for kids of all ages. Retired beanies, like Peanut the Elephant, increased enormously in value. 9. The Hale-Bopp Comet returned to view 4,200 years after its last visit. In many areas, the comet was visible with the naked eye. The comet's next appearance should be in the year 4397. 10. In a re-match in May, IBM's chess playing machine, Deep Blue, defeated world champion Russian Garry Kasparov. 11. Retro 70s trends
